Dear Leonard, Michael, and Millicent DuBoff:

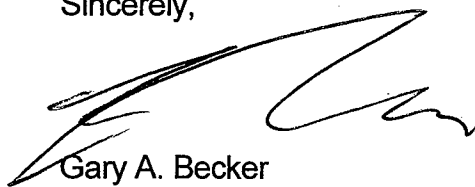

Thank you very much for your generosity in establishing the Candise DuBoff Jones Scholarship at Lewis & Clark Law School. I am truly honored to be one of this year's recipients, and I am grateful for the opportunities your support will help provide.

Ms. DuBoff Jones is an inspiration and a role model for me, both as a current Lewis & Clark student and a future attorney. I am now about the age at which Ms. DuBoff Jones, your sister and daughter, was tragically taken, and her career is a poignant reminder of how I will strive to perform in mine. I can only hope to emulate her aptitude and astuteness in serving the legal system, as well as her passion and commitment to serving her clients. Thank you for establishing this scholarship to honor these principles.

In addition to memorializing the values Ms. DuBoff Jones exemplified, thank you also for the financial help your generous scholarship will provide. In pursuit of my own passion for the legal arts, I came to Lewis & Clark without any financial assistance—I am paying for my education and living expenses entirely through loans and personal income. Your generous support is a great help in reducing some of that burden, and I very much appreciate it.

I am proud to be a recipient of a scholarship dedicated to Ms. DuBoff Jones's memory. Her highly-regarded reputation is an inspiration, and I will endeavor to live up to such a prestigious award. Again, I offer my sincerest thanks for your support.

Sincerely,

Gary A. Becker
